HUDSON, HUMPHRIES & CASSELL.

Fredrick Warde at the Opera House.

What promises to prove the most notable event of the dramatic season is announced for the first three nights of next week in the engagement of the distinguished tragedian Fredrick Warde and his celebrated company. Mr. Warde has by former engagements in this city established himself as a favorite here. It is four years since he was last seen here, and during the intervening time he has steadily advanced in his profession and in popular favor, until now he is recognized as the foremost representative of robust tragedy on the American stage. His recent engagements in New York were perfect ovations to his brilliancy and genius, and he returns to that city in November for an extended re-engagement of six weeks. In Washington, Baltimore and Pittsburg the theaters have been too limited in capacity to seat the multitudes who have desired to witness his performances, and standing room was at a premium during his visits there.

The company supporting Mr. Warde has shared largely in the honors won this season. Each individual member having been specially selected for his or her peculiar fitness for the various roles assumed.

The Warde management carries historically correct scenery for the different plays in the repertoire, and costumes designed from the original plates representing the historic characters portrayed in the tragedies performed.

The plays selected for production here are as follows: Monday night, Oct. 25th, Sheridan Knowles grand tragedy Virginus. Tuesday night Shakespeare's most popular play Richard III or the Battle of Bosworth Field. Wednesday night the new play recently added to Mr. Warde's list, an adaptation from the French of Saunet, entitled Galba the Gladiator, which is declared by the press of the cities, in which it has been represented, to be one of the strongest tragedies ever brought out.

Reserved seats for the entire engagement are on sale at Barrett's. The prices are one dollar in the Parquette, 75 cents in the Circle, 50 cents in the Balcony and 25 in the Gallery.

The following infamous slander upon ladies who attended the Centennial Hop in this city, appeared in the Louisville Truth of October 10th. If the author of the same would only show up in this city we think we can safely promise him a first-class coat of tar and feathers or a sound thrashing:

Ladies in search of startling novelties in dresses for evening wear would have profited by a visit to the Centennial hop given at the Capitol Hotel, Frankfort, on the evening of the 6th. One of the most noticeable costumes was made of a thin, loosely-woven material, which showed up a form divine every time the fair wearer would get between you and the light. It was a "Mother Hubbard" of the purest stripe, without the faintest suggestion of a belt, and was suspended by small straps over the shoulders. Had it been worn so as to cover the upper portion of the body the lower limbs would have been exposed to the idle gaze of a critical public, and had it on the other hand reached to the shoe-tops the wearer would have been minus any covering above her waist. It looked more like a satin coffee-sack with arm-holes cut through it and hung at half-mast for some lost love.

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss ——— did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off." Another belle wore a winding-sheet of white, draped, in true Japanese fashion, and amused herself by casting shy glances at her feet through the inner folds of her garment. The chestnut-bells might have been rung with much propriety on some of the eldest-bells who not being able to dance insisted upon monopolizing the floor, thus barring those who could the opportunity and pleasure. The ball was a great success, but there was such a jam that dancing was impossible until quite late.

Some fifty to seventy-five persons went down to Louisville to see the Fire-works and Exposition on Thursday morning.

Proceedings of the Frank- lin County Teachers' Institute.

FRIDAY 14th, 1886.
Institute called to order. Prayer by Prof. R. H. Carothers.

The subject of grammar was then discussed. Prof. Carothers opening the discussion and was followed by Prof. Browder, T. B. Ford and others. The discussion lasted until after 12 m., and all present seemed to be deeply interested. Committee on resolutions reported. (Printed last issue.) The name of J. W. Forbes was ordered to be placed on the resolutions with Mr. Davis but was overlooked in some way.

Query box opened and questions assigned.

AFTERNOON.

Queries answered.

The subject of fractions was introduced by Thos. R. Ford.

Theory and practice of teaching arithmetic was demonstrated by Prof. Carothers to the benefit of all present.

The non-payment of the teachers by the month was explained by the Superintendent.

The duties of teachers came next. Discussion opened by J. W. Douglass.

The President notified the teachers that the County Association would meet at Col. T. B. Ford's office the 2nd Saturday in November.

NIGHT SESSION.

A lecture on Physiology was delivered by T. E. Utterback. We regret that there were not all the teachers present to hear Mr. U. upon this subject.

Miss Katie Shipp next read an essay entitled "Our Work," in which she showed

An educational address by Col. T. B. Ford was next in order. The Col. fully sustained the reputation he has heretofore earned as an educational speaker.

Miss Katie Shipp next read an essay entitled "Our Work," in which she showed the great need of the day.

Judge W. M. Beckner then took the stand, and for three quarters of an hour held the audience intensely interested while he spoke on "Popular Education."

This speech was said to be the best of all that he has made upon this subject.

A negro male child about twelve hours old was left in the yard of Mr. Chas. S. Green, on Conway street,

Friday night. When it was discovered the police were promptly sent for and the little wail turned over to the city authorities.

Letter from Zeke Yocum.

STRING TOWN, KY., 1886.

DEAR NEPHEW: This leaves me and your aunt well. Suppose your heard that your aunt was a mother. The birth was not as previous as your uncle would have liked, but so it is, it was a rare ripe case. It gives me some consolation to know that I'm not the only man that has a rare ripe baby. His name is Uncivil Service. You know we Democrats have it down on Grover and James Beck, in the Louisville district. Pardon me for referring to political matters, knowing your valuable paper is neutral in politics.

Will you please make an apology for me, through the columns of your paper, for not making the speech promised at the Centennial. My excuse is that on my road from Sandville at night I came in contact with the blossom end of a pole cat, and soiled my clothes so that I could not come.

My heart was with you in the Cen. Ten. was at Hatton, on the 5th of October.

There was some fifty or sixty tickets sold for the Centennial. I went to Hatton on the 6th of October, just after 3 o'clock, a. m., and found forty or fifty waiting for the agent to get up. Some three hundred bought tickets. It's safe to say that, out of the three hundred who bought tickets for the Centennial at Hatton, one hundred of that number were church members—Baptist, Methodist, Campbellites and Catholics—all of whom went away nice and civil, and would have remained so but for a vicious dog of Tom Ballou's, who bit a number of poor unsuspecting feeble-minded Christians, who had their pockets picked of what money they had. Dog bites make people very sick. Some threw up, some were cross-eyed, some were sleepy. There was enough bargo and sheep hash left at Hatton to fatten all of the dogs in this million of the station. Hell had to take his shotgun with him in going to and from the depot.

$100 REWARD!

To any one who will kill Ballou's dog, description—he is a slit nose bull-dog, with bob tail. You will know him on sight by his sneaking qualities.

Please say to my nephew, at Harper's Ferry, that his aunt has a baby, and that the birth was not previous enough, which caused his uncle a great deal of trouble.

If you know anything about Stone Kitchen or Buck Run school district, let me hear from you. I'm so afraid that the poor children will get in the school. What has become of the young lady of the Midway Orphan School, as the good trustees who tried so hard to defeat her for the school in the Kitchen district. News came to Harper's that they had gone to Rowan county, and had taken command of a company of regulators.

I will leave Hatton soon, my next letter will be from Sandville.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 23, 1886.

Death of Miss E. T. Lewis.

Miss Elizabeth Traverse Lewis, a former citizen of the Woodlake neighborhood, and an aunt of the editors of this paper, died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Susan R. Price, at Brookside, near Richmond, Va., on Friday, October 15, in the 74th year of her age.

The older members of this community will remember her as a lady of unusual mental attainments of warm and generous nature, fearless and intelligent in the expression of her views; and altogether one of the loveliest of the old-fashioned Virginia ladies of the olden time.

She was born in Spottsylvania county, Va., in August, 1813, came to Kentucky about the year 1832, and resided near Woodlake, this county, until 1882; when she returned to Virginia. She united with the Presbyterian Church in this city about 1842, under the ministry of Rev. J. J. Bullock, D. D., and has ever since, by her life and conversation, borne testimony to the truth and sufficiency of the religion of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Of delicate and nervous temperament, she suffered long and patiently, and at last fell asleep in the blessed hope of a brighter world beyond. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," for verily "they do rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Our new Circuit Judge, Hon. Warren Montfort, opened the October term on Monday last. The Judge is no stranger in this community, and we believe will make a firm upright Judge, who will show evil-doers no quarter, enforcing the law alike upon the rich and the poor, the high and the low.

Hon. John S. Gaunt, the new Commonwealth's Attorney did not arrive until Tuesday morning. The business of the Court is being transacted with care and dispatch.

The many friends of Mr. David B. Bell, a former citizen of our county, will regret to learn that he died on Thursday, Oct. 14, at his home in Greenville, Miss., of malarial fever. "Dave," as he was so familiarly known, was our friend in the days "lang syne" at the "Old Stone School House," at Woodlake, and was a wholesome and upright gentleman.

Hunting, fishing, and postman gathering are the most popular amusements of the day among a certain class of young men just now. We do not dare to say that the grand jury's session has anything to do with the sudden fondness of these young men for this class of amusements, but a hint to the wise is sufficient.

The Grand Lodge, Grand Chapter, and Grand Council of Ancient York Masons have been in session in Louisville this week, commencing on Tuesday. Old Hiram Lodge, No. 4, was represented by Geo. A. Lewis, W. M., and Esoteric Lodge, No. 512, was represented by W. S. Cuplinger, S. W.

We regret to learn that Mr. Thos. Lillard, of Mercer county, committed suicide on Monday evening, at his residence by hanging in his dining room. This sad event is a peculiarly surprising one, as he was happily situated in every respect in life.

Mrs. John W. McClure was paid, on Saturday, $2,000 insurance upon the life of her late husband, by the Knights of Honor, he being a member of Frankfort Lodge, No. 10, in this city.

Mr. Thos. B. Rodman, son of J. L. Rodman, Esq., and Miss Julia Davall, daughter of Dr. B. P. Davall, were married at the Baptist Church, in this city, on Wednesday evening next, at 6 o'clock. All their friends are invited to be present.

Hon. Sanford B. Thomas, of Scott county, and Miss Louie K. Chiles, of this city, were married at the residence of Col. John L. Scott, "Edge-wood," on Wednesday last, by Rev. George Barstie. Mr. Thomas is a prominent young lawyer of Scott county, and Miss Chiles is a charming and accomplished young lady. The young couple have our best wishes.

Sam Crawford, a negro convict, sent from Meade county for life for murder, made his escape from the Penitentiary, just after dark Sunday evening, by lashing two saw-ladders together, placing them against the rear wall, climbing into a guard box on the wall separating the women's yard from the other portion of the prison, and lowering himself to the ground with a rope. He was employed as fireman and was not locked up when the balance of the prisoners went to their cells. He had served eleven years of his term.

Judge Montfort is opening the eyes of recalcitrant and careless witnesses. The habit has been growing in this county, to be very careless about obeying the summons of the sheriff, and frequently cases have been delayed until finally thrown out by this policy. When attachments issue the parties have generally been left off on any kind of excuse. The new Judge called up eight or ten witnesses on Thursday and fined them for not obeying the summons, and announced the new policy in no uncertain terms. Good for you, Judge!

What came near being a very serious fire occurred at the Open House, at seven o'clock, on Wednesday night. It seems that there was a pile of waste paper and kindling near the coal bunk, under the staging, which was ignited either by accident or design. It is hard to determine which. It was burning quite fiercely when discovered, but was quickly extinguished when our "fire ladders" reached the place. Owing to the dense smoke it was almost impossible to learn the extent of the damage until next morning, when it was found not to amount to more than $10 or $20. By the use of the new cut-off nozzles the fire boys were able to extinguish the fire without the usual damage by water.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Rebecca M. Crutcher, wife of Levi T. Crutcher, Esq., which took place on Thursday last, at the family residence near Jet's Station, this county. Mrs. Crutcher was in the 82d year of her age, and had been the wife of Mr. Levi T. Crutcher for more than sixty years. For over half a century she had been a faithful and consistent member of the Methodist Church. And that Savior she had so faithfully served in life, was her stay and support at the last. To the aged and desolate husband, and the large family of children and grand children, left behind we tender our sincerest sympathy in their deep affliction.

Sam McCurdy, who is in jail awaiting his trial for attempting to kill Officer Henry Brown about a year ago, attempted to make his escape Saturday night from one of the upper rooms of the Court House, where the prisoners are at present confined awaiting the completion of the jail, by running an iron poker under the window sill, tying his blankets together and fastening them to the poker. In getting out of the window he slipped, lost his hold on the blanket and fell to the ground, a distance of fifteen feet, alighting on a large stone and a portion of iron railing which had been removed from the court room, and bruising himself up terribly. Mr. P. P. Smith, who was guarding the prisoners, was in the court room at the time, ran out when he heard him fall, with his pistol presented ready to shoot, but the poor wretch exclaimed "don't shoot, I am about dead now." He was taken up, carried into the Court House and a physician sent for, when it was discovered no bones were broken. He has since been suffering a great deal, but will be all right again in a short time.

A meeting of the students of the late Prof. B. B. Sayre was held at the Court-house on Wednesday night, the 20th inst., at which those present formed a temporary organization by electing Capt. Lewis E. Harvie Chairman and M. P. Gray, Secretary. The following committee was appointed to draft a resolution defining specifically the plan of a permanent organization, which they are to present at another meeting to be held at the Court-house on Wednesday night, November the 3d: Dr. W. H. Phyllian, Chairman, J. M. Pendleton, Geo. R. Vallandigham, Uberto Keenon, W. H. Murray. Quite a number of pupils of Prof. Sayre have enrolled their names as members of the Sayre Memorial Association, and a large attendance is expected at the next meeting, Nov. 30.

WHITE HALL.

Col. John L. Scott gave a nice entertainment to his children, on Wednesday evening, at which a number of the young people were present, and enjoyed themselves hugely.

Mr. John E. Kane, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Superior Court, was admitted to the Franklin bar on Monday. Mr. Kane is a thorough gentleman, and promises to make a fine lawyer.

About four o'clock on Thursday evening the water pipe burst, near the corner of Main and Wilkinson streets, and two things loose and a very lively race for a short while, until the Water Company's men could be summoned and turn the water off. The damage was repaired on that night and everything is working all right now.

Two young men named Montague and Shea were arrested by officer James Hurst, charged with robbing a stranger of $12.00 at the boarding house of Capt. Sam W. Gools, corner of Lewis and Clinton streets, on Wednesday night. The grand jury investigated the matter, on Thursday, and they were indicted for felony and placed in jail to await trial.

There was a storm party at the residence of Mr. Cyrus Galvert, near the mouth of Elkhorn, on Tuesday night. There were quite a number of ladies in attendance, among whom were Misses Mary Bacon, Pearl Polard, Emma Stone, Claudia and Jennie Sullivan, and the Misses Fisher, of Frankfort. There were some twelve or fifteen gentlemen present. All went merry as a marriage bell, and every one went away pleased with the result. The music was furnished by Winter's Band.

A meeting of the students of the late Prof. B. B. Sayre was held at the Court-house on Wednesday night, the 20th inst., at which those present formed a temporary organization by electing Capt. Lewis E. Harvie Chairman and M. P. Gray, Secretary.

The following committee was appointed to draft a resolution defining specifically the plan of a permanent organization, which they are to present at another meeting to be held at the Court-house on Wednesday night, November the 3d: Dr. W. Quite a number of pupils of Prof. Sayre have enrolled their names as members of the Sayre Memorial Association, and a large attendance is expected at the next meeting, Nov. 30.

We are under obligations to Mr. E. A. Fellner for late files of New Orleans papers.

Two men named Snider and Johnson became involved in a difficulty, on Sunday afternoon, in classic "Craw," when Snider struck Johnson a terrific blow over the head, Johnson then drew his "little pop" and blazed away four times, neither shot taking effect on his game. The men were arrested by Chief Merchant, but released on their own recognizance. Snider had to have his hand dressed by Dr. Brown, he having cut it badly when he struck Johnson.

The parties were tried, on Monday, and Johnson fined $25 and costs for being too handsy with his "pop."

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs, had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by the use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with the best results. This is the experience of thousands who have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 23, 1886.

Mr. Darsie occupies his pulpit to-morrow morning and night as usual.

On Heating Stoves you can save money by buying at Gray & Church.

Mr. Darsie's meeting at Shelbyville closed last Tuesday night with 34 accession to the Church.

We regret to know that Miss Anna Sullivan, one of the teachers in the City School, is quite sick.

The ROUNDABOUT man was appointed a member of the committee on Lodges Under Dispensation in the Grand Lodge of Masons, in Louisville, on Tuesday.

A young minister residing in an Eastern city will return to his old Frankfort home next month and carry away with him one of Frankfort's fairest daughters as his bride.

The Tobacco Growers of Franklin county are requested to meet at the Court House, in this city, on Monday, Nov. 1st. (County Court day), to take action looking to the righting of their grievances, as set forth in the resolutions adopted by the Tobacco Growers of Owen county.

Loss.—Between the water works reservoir and Wakefield's mill, on Monday last, the plans and specifications for a family residence. The finder will be rewarded by leaving same at the mill of J. M. Wakefield with M. R. Wayts.

The L. & N. R. R. will sell round trip tickets to Louisville to-day for the small sum of $1. These tickets will be good on any train returning, including a special, which leaves Louisville at 10:30 o'clock, p. m.

Those who were once pupils of the late B. B. Sayre, will be interested in the proceedings of a meeting reported in another column. The object of the meeting was to form a permanent organization to keep alive the memory of former school days, and to bring annually together, in delightful reunions, all who enjoyed the privilege of the ripe and splendid scholarship of the famous teacher. We have no doubt that every pupil of Mr. Sayre will enroll himself a member of the organization, and that the latter will form one of the valued features of Frankfort's history.

A white convict by the name of Thornton Berry made his escape yesterday morning. He was sent with a negro trusty to deliver some shelves in South Frankfort, and when at the corner of Bridge and Second streets he made an excuse to go down into the hollow in the rear of the new Placed block, telling the negro to wait for him. As he failed to return, the negro inquired of several persons he saw coming in from the country if they had seen him, and on being told that they met him some distance from town, he returned to the prison and reported the facts when mounted guards were started in pursuit. Perry was sent for eight years from Anderson county, for manslaughter and had been a trusty for some time.

Dr. W. I. Kelley will be at the Capital Hotel, in this city, this morning, and will be pleased to see any persons who may need his professional services.

The ladies of the Methodist Church will re-open their exchange to-day in the counting-room of the Yeoman building from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. They bespeak the favorable consideration of the housekeepers of the city.

Gray & Church are selling stoves at hard pan prices.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by J. L. Compton.

Extra select oysters, the best in the city, 10 cents per can at J. HEENEY'S.

To the Voters of the First Ward, (Comprising South Frankfort.)

An election for Constables is to be held on the 4th day of December next.

The undersigned, your present representatives in the Council, have requested your faithful, and, as they believe, valuable service. They are candidates before you for re-election, and ask, and would be gratified by, your support at the polls. RICHARD TOBIN, WILLIAM J. HUGHES, EDWARD H. TAYLOR, JR., Frankfort, Oct. 16, 1886.

To the Voters of the Second Ward

The undersigned respectfully announces himself as a candidate for re-election as Constable in the Second Ward, at the election December 4th, 1886. R. C. CHURCH.

"I'm out of sorts," says a lady, "stomach" disordered, torpid liver, pale face, no appetite, etc., and I feel very bad. One dose of a bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy will give relief. A few doses will cure a long train of ailments."

Cure for Piles

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blood, bleeding and itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piquette, O. Sold by Hughes & Chiles.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

The examining trial of Mr. Alex. Julian, for assault upon Miss Maggie O. Hawkins, was had on Saturday last, when he was held over in bond of $1,000, which was promptly given.

The first electric lights ever seen in this city were burning at the Custom House wharf on Sunday evening. The fine tow boat, Excel, was provided with them, and while burning they lighted up that section of the city in splendid style. We are informed by Capt. E. M. Draue, agent for the Blue Wing, that that steamer is soon to be provided with them also.

The saw and planing mill of Messrs. W. J. Hughes & Son was destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning last. The fire was discovered just before 1 o'clock, and was beyond control when first seen. The mill and contents were totally consumed, involving a loss of about $5,000. Their large yard full of lumber was saved without damage. The property was covered by insurance.

It Will Not Disappoint You.

I contracted blood poison two years ago. I was treated with Potash and Mercury for over two months by physicians. I thought I was well, but the fires were only smouldering. The eruption came anew more violent than before. A friend who had tested it in a similar case suggested S. S. S. I began its use, and commenced to improve from the start. As the disease passed away, it left me with mercurial rheumatism as the result of taking the mercury and potash mixtures. That is also yielding to the influence of Swift's Specific, and will soon be gone. To the afflicted I would say, give it a fair trial, and you will not be disappointed in results.

PYÆMIA

Is the most virulent form of blood-poisoning. Low speedily fatal, but not less certainly so, is the vitiation of the blood of which the first symptoms are Pimples, Bites, Boils, and Cutaneous Eruptions. When the faint of Scrofula gives warning of its presence by such indications, no time should be lost in trying AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, the only perfect and reliable medicine for the purification of the blood.

SCROFULA

Is a foul corruption in the blood that rots out all the machinery of life. Nothing will eradicate it from the system and prevent its transmission to offspring but AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. This preparation is also the only one that will cleanse the blood of Mercurial poison and the taint of Contagious Diseases. Impoverished blood - a violation of

ANÆMIA,

A wretched condition induced by Pallid Skin, Flaccid Muscles, Shattered Nerves, and Melancholy. Its first symptoms are Weakness, Languor, Loss of Nerve Force, and Mental Dejection. Its consequences lead inevitably to insanity or death. Women frequently suffer from it. The only medicine that, while purifying the blood, enriches it with new vitality, and invigorates the whole system, is

3 ROUNDABOUT--Supplement

FRANKFORT, KY., OCTOBER 23, 1886.

The news from Gen. John Rodman yesterday afternoon was to the effect that he was lying very ill, and his death momentarily expected.

Mr. Richard Jenkins has left at this office some of the nicest apples we have seen this year. They were of the Roman Beauty variety, and are splendid for either cooking or eating.

Messrs. S. & J. H. Told purchased, on Monday the coal business of Mr. W. T. Gaines. They take his stock of coal on hand together with all his carts, wagons and horses, and will remove their office to his old stand. Mr. Gaines will give his entire attention to his tow boat, the Houston Combs.

Mr. John Frazer, of Woodlake, has laid upon our table a curiosity in the shape of a large Shaker Russett Potato from which are growing in all directions, other potatoes to the number of ten. One or two of the smaller ones closely resemble the profile of a human face. Mr. Frazer raised a large crop of these potatoes, which are very fine, but he wishes it understood that he has none for sale. We return thanks for a nice mess for our table.

Mr. John T. Parker, of the Farmdale neighborhood, has left on our table the finest pear we have ever seen raised in this section, which was grown on his farm. It is of the Duchess de Angouleme variety, weighs one pound four ounces and a half, measured 13 inches in circumference. The tree upon which it grew is a small one, being only nine feet in height and seven and a half inches at the base which has been bearing for three years, and bore but 39 this year, which averaged one pound in weight. And it was perfectly delicious to the taste.

Personal.

Mr. C. E. Collins left, on Thursday evening, for a trip to Arkansas.

Miss Sue Gelsin was in Louisville on Tuesday.

Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart attended the Grand Lodge of Masons this week.

Judge W. P. D. Rush and wife went to Louisville on Tuesday.

Mr. J. E. Darnell went down to Louisville on Thursday evening.

Misses Sue G., Lillie and Carrie Bush went to Louisville this week.

Mr. J. Clifford Page, of Memphis, Tenn., has been on a visit to this city this week.

Mr. J. E. Kane went down to Louisville to spend a few days on Thursday.

Mr. M. D. Averill attended the Grand Lodge of Masons at Louisville.

Miss Josie Mahoney is visiting her cousins, Maggie and Mamie Downey, near this city.

Miss Lucy Bush, who has been visiting the eastern cities, returned on Sunday.

Miss Cora Blakemore, of this county, went to Louisville, on Tuesday, to visit friends.

Col. John Shelby, a prominent young lawyer of Lexington, was in the city on Tuesday.

Mr. Chas. Baffell went down to Louisville, on Tuesday, to consult Dr. Cheatham about his injured eye.

Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Lexington, was in the city on Tuesday in attendance upon the courts.

Misses Emma Kavanaugh and Mattie Jones have been visiting friends in Woodford county.

Hon. W. C. Owens, of Scott, was shaking hands with his many friends here this week.

Miss Mary Todd Baffell, who has been travelling in the east for a month or so, returned home on Sunday.

Miss M. T. Sewell, who has been visiting Miss Helen Williams, South Side, returned to her home in Campbellburg Monday.

Capt. Sam. M. Swigert, U. S. A., with his wife and daughter, are on a visit to Capt. Swigert's brothers—J. and J. Swigert, near Spring Station.

Mr. Sam Thomason, of Salem, Virginia, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. D. A. Thomason, in this county, left Monday night for home.

The New Sensation.

FRANKFORT, KY., Oct. 23, 1886.

The undersigned would wish to state to the citizens of Frankfort and vicinity that they are preparing for publication, and will issue in a short time, a Centennial Souvenir, history of Frankfort and Franklin county from 1786 to 1886, together with a complete review of the business interests of Frankfort and vicinity. This will contain John Mason Brown's Centennial Oration in full, together with an account of the proceedings of the Frankfort Centennial Celebration. It will also contain interesting papers from the pens of Frankfort's best literary people. We would call the attention of the business men to the advantages which would accrue to them by placing an advertisement therein, as the history will be gotten up in a neat book form, and will be read by every one in the city and county.

The publishers will call on the business men of the city during the week and would be glad to make arrangements with them for space, etc. Mr. Goodwin will call on the citizens shortly for their patronage in the way of subscription. Price, 50 cents; no money collected for these books until they are placed in your hands. Subscriptions received at C. L. Kendall's lundry. KENHALL & O'CONNOR.

BORN.

Saturday, Oct. 9, to the wife of Jas. N. Miles, a son, ROBERT SANUEL.

DIED.

At the residence of his father, in this county, of congestion of the brain, LAWRENCE HAMILTON, infant son of P. B. and Mary T. Ferguson.

Near this city, on Monday, October 18th, 1886, JIMMIE M. DOWNEY, aged 14 years. Jimmie was an exceedingly kind and affectionate son and brother, and was devoted to his parents. An invalid all of his life, he was particularly endeared to his mother, brothers and sisters on account of his gentle disposition and unfeigned intimacy. He was a member of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and was ready and willing to die. His last moments were spent in speaking and thinking of his family and friends. He has gone to a more beautiful home to await their coming. His mother, brothers and sisters and friends mourn his untimely loss.

Card of Thanks.

To the Officers and Members of the Franklin County Teachers' Institute:

I desire to take this opportunity of expressing my sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Institute for the interest they have taken in me, as expressed by the resolution passed during your recent session.

I am pleased to say that I am now improving very much in health, and if I continue so to do, will be ready for the duties of my school room in a few days.

I was pleased to hear that the Institute was a perfect success, and regret very much that circumstances prevented me from participating in the exercises.

Yours fraternally,

F. W. DAVIS.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Mr. Jno. Bowen went to the great Glenview sale last week.

Miss Mattie Robb spent several days with Miss Josie Murphy last week.

Miss Annie South, of Frankfort, is out visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Alf Stedman, who has been sick, has about recovered.

Whooping cough prevails as an epidemic in this community.

Mr. Cass South and two children have the whooping cough.

Miss Helen Long, of Georgetown, was the guest of the Misses Wilson this week.

Mr. Howard Black has been in Lexington this week exhibiting his fine horses.

Mr. James Gallihue and wife and daughter went to the Exposition last week.

Mr. Lute Thompson, of Stedmanville, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Born, to Mrs. Minnie Dejoine, of North Fork neighborhood, a son, L. E. Burdin.

Mr. Bess Sullivan left here last Thursday for Eddyville, where he will in the future reside.

Miss Annie Wood and her guest, Miss Lullie Lee, visited Louisville last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. South Trimble have recovered from their recent illness; both had fever.

Mr. Oscar Dejoine, from Council Bluffs, Iowa, is visiting his father-in-law, Mr. L. E. Burdin, at Switzer.

Mr. William Sudduth and family left here last week for a short stay with relatives near Hatton.

Mr. Steve Black bought a very fine colt at the Glenview sale last week, price $1,725.00.

Mr. Louis Todd, from Bellepoint, has been the guest of Mr. Griff Stedman, at Stedmanville.

Miss Addie Cason, having spent two weeks with Miss Lullie and Susie Jones, returned home last week.

Miss Bettie Macklin, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Blackburn, returned to Georgetown Tuesday.

Miss Annie Marquess, a charming young lady of Madison, Ind., is visiting friends in this community.

We are glad to see that our paper has doubled itself since the Centennial, let us keep it up. It is the leading county paper.

The colored brethren of the Baptist persuasion had a baptizing at this place last Sunday. Eight candidates were immersed.

The protracted meeting at the Mt. Pleasant Church closed last Saturday with 14 additions, 10 by experience, 3 by letter and one restored.

The sale of stock and produce on the farm recently owned by Mr. Adam Harper, took place on the 25th inst. A fair price was obtained for every thing offered.

The Forks of the river were defeated by a score of 8 to 4 at Stamping Ground last Saturday. Only five of their nine were present, and the game was played with 8, three others, having been selected from the bystanders.

The young ladies and gentlemen contemplated opening a skating rink at Woodlake very soon. The rink last winter afforded a large amount of fun, and much enjoyment is anticipated from this coming season.

Mr. William Bedford bought a mare in Frankfort, Centennial week, which has proved to be a very fast animal. He says she can trot in 2:40 and was offered $600 for her a few days ago.

Wilson West and Manlius Ward, two colored men, died last week near Woodlake of dysentery or flux. This disease has existed as an epidemic in this neighborhood for the last three or four months. In all several hundred cases have occurred and many deaths have resulted. No new cases are reported at present.

The colored people have been holding a protracted meeting in their new chapel for the last three weeks; services are protracted to a late hour each night. The deep tones of the preacher and the shrill voices of the sisters floating on the night air down the waters of North Elkhorn, are not at all unmusical, and mellowed by distance produce an agreeable weird sensation upon the listener.

Some of the citizens of North Fork neighborhood requested me, through the columns of the ROUNDABOUT, to ask the County Attorney, or some one who knows something about the bird law. If it is now in existence when does it expire? Please answer in next week's paper. They expect to test this in the next grand jury, as some hunters have failed to observe the law.

The following piece was written by a young man who recently fell in love and is describing the scenery to his fair one: "The scenery around the Forks at this season of the year is very beautiful. The lofty cliffs, undulating meadows and meandering streams, softened by the mellow tints of the Autumnal foliage, pronounce a picture unparalleled in loveliness. In fact it might be said of this section of the country, if not of all the earth, it is at least the most smiling corner of the county." (We agree with him all along, and those who do not, let them come and see for themselves.)

Miss Mamie and Alice Wilson, of Meadow Grove, near Woodlake, entertained Miss Annie Wood and her company last Saturday evening. The hostesses strove in their usual hospitable way, to make every one happy, and the occasion was highly enjoyed by all present. The ladies present were Mrs. Dr. Wilson, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Jr., Misses Annie Wood, Lullie Lee, Bettie Macklin, Lullie and Susie Jones, Helen Long and Miss Benton. The gentlemen were Messrs. Dr. Wilson, Walter Lewis, Will Drennon, Stewart Wood, B. and Frank Frazier and Dr. Coleman.
